Bible Records - Gilkison

"Russell" Gilkison, Morehead, Ky., has an old leather-bound "Practical Arithmetic" published at Philadelphia in 1822. It was the property of George Elliott. The book came to him from his mother. It has a statement near the front: "J. W. Lansdown and me is a courting and maby we will marry when he comes back but not before." There was no printed title on the cover. Russell also had a little book, "Frank Worthy or The Orphan and His Benefactor." In the back was written: Mary S. Cassity's Book, presented by <sup>Isaac Armstrong</sup> I. A. Hedges, Feb. the 20th, 1869" 'Amelia Hamm.' (The last was in a different hand.) In the front was written: "March the 21th 1818. "When this you see think of me," and "Isaac A. Hedges Book;" also, "Mary S. Gilkison was born 1856;" also "Albert Gilkison, March the 16th 1877," and "Mary S. Gilkison, March the 21, 1878."

On the inside of first fly leaf: Willia<sup>sic</sup> Cassity died the 31st January and was burried the first day of feb. 1870."

A small brown leather-bound Bible also the property of Ora "Russell" Gilkison, of Morehead, had inside the front cover: "Sarah Gilkison, Dec. the 22nd, 1889. To Miss Mollie Cassity From her Friend W. W. Richeson. Dec. the 25th, 1871." and below that:

"Prof. W. W. Richeson Departed this life Dec. 22nd, 1888."
He was one of the hunters who haunted the Hamm Menage.

The first fly leaf had: "Eunice Elma Estep was born Jan. the 7th, 1888." and below that: "Lourena Hedges was born August 22, 1858."

"Malvina Jane Hall departed this life Aug. the 26, 1893.

"Bettie White departed this life Aug. 28th, 1893.

"Bettie L. Masters departed this life May, 1896 (neighbors, said Russell.)

Jesse Hall departed this life (torn) the 21st, 1914, only sick _____ (torn)"
det. (see p. 3)

On 2nd fly leaf:

"Mrs. Alice Hall Departed this life March the 2, 1918." (neighbors, said Russell.)

"Also Mrs. Evans Departed this life feb. the 28, 1918." (Lucy (Sloan) Gilkison thinks this last item was of the death of her grandmother.)

A card from John G. Evans was in the Bible: "Mr. John G. Evans and family acknowledge with deep appreciation . . . "and was postmarked Sept. 12, 1924, Frankfort, Ky.

There was a card from a girl, Amelia Hammond Pancost (and husband, Lawrence M. Pancost) whom Mary Samantha reared, saying: "Robert Lesly Pancost, born Sept. 7, 1903, Dalmont, Colo."

On p. 613:

"Lourena L. Enixe departed this life April 15, 1883."

"Lourena Hedges was born Aug. 22, 1858."

"Eunice Elma Estep born Jan. the 7 (~~or 29~~), 1924."

On the reverse side: "G. G. Hamm departed this life September the 10th, 1880."

"Lourena Enix departed this life April the 15, 1883." ~ repeated, sic.

"Albert Russell Cassity was born January 21st, 1828."
